This October the PGA TOUR is coming to Silicon Valley for the first time ever. This marks the sixth PGA TOUR tournament hosted by San Jose-based Fry's Electronics, but the first in their home town. The 2010 Frys.com Open will feature 132 of the finest players in the world, all of who are competing for the biggest Fall Series Purse of $5 million. They will be competing at the beautiful CordeValle Golf Course in San Martin, CA. Over the past five years the tournament has raised over $2.2 million dollars for charity and plans to raise over $1 million for local charities this year. The 2010 Frys.com Open is forecasted to bring $15 million to $18 million in economic impact to the area.
